

THE EMPOWERED MILLIONAIRE'S POWERIZING AFFIRMATION

“All that I desire for my life can be manifested through the creative power of my mind. This is my birthright, part of the incredible gift of life from infinite intelligence, part of my unlimited personal power and positive potential. My infinite life force, which represents love, life, light, health, wealth and happiness, is now radiating in peace and harmony, bringing blessings to everyone.

I have a deep understanding of my personal power and take responsibility for selecting and directing my own destiny. As I radiate my empowering life force, I imagine a new way of life opening up and filling me with vigor, vitality and energy. I feel radiantly alive. I picture my new life exactly as I want it to be. It is here now and I savor it all. I let go of the old and live in the new.

I welcome every new day, for each one is scintillating and filled with abundant opportunities for fulfillment. Life is love, life is fun, life is exciting, life is happiness, life is wealth, life is joy, life is wellness, life is prosperity, life is wisdom, life is passion, life is desire, life is hope, and life is magnificent. This is precisely as I design my life to be. For every day in every way I choose to live my life to the maximum with dignity, with integrity and with noble purpose — so be it.”
